

Small Business Week

May 18 - May 21, 2009

Please Join Us!

Collaborate.

Talk with other business owners and learn from experts in a variety of areas essential to small business ownership and operation.

Explore.

Lowell has many amenities to offer small businesses. From restaurants and retail to professional services and educational opportunities, Lowell has something to offer any small business.

Find Talent.

Lowell draws talented individuals with the drive and expertise to help your business succeed.

Programming Schedule

Monday, May 18, 2009

- ◆ Lowell Small Business Week Kick-Off Event
Mayor's Reception Room, City Hall, 375 Merrimack Street, 10:00AM
- ◆ Renewal Community Showcase Featuring Lowell & Lawrence
Edward J. Early Garage, 135 Middlesex Street, 11:30AM – 1:00PM

Tuesday, May 19, 2009

- ◆ Lowell Brand Launch Breakfast
The Revolving Museum, 22 Shattuck Street, 8:00 AM - 9:00AM
- ◆ Lowell One-Stop Business Resource Fair
Edward J. Early Garage, 135 Middlesex Street, 10:00AM – 3:00PM
- ◆ Tactics for Survival Panel Discussion
Edward J. Early Garage, 135 Middlesex Street, 12:00PM - 1:30PM
- ◆ HUBZone & Procurement Opportunities Workshop
Edward J. Early Garage, 135 Middlesex Street, 2:00PM – 3:30PM

Wednesday, May 20, 2009

- ◆ Massachusetts Data Security Breach Seminar
Morse Federal Building, 50 Merrimack Street, 7:30AM – 9:00AM
- ◆ On the Money Trail – Financing Is Still Available For Good Companies
Wannalancit Mill Building, 600 Suffolk Street, 5:00PM – 8:00PM

Thursday, May 21, 2009

- ◆ The Economic Stimulus Bill and Other Government Opportunities
Mayor's Reception Room, City Hall, 375 Merrimack Street, 8:30AM – 10:30AM
- ◆ UMass-Lowell M2D2 Business Presentations & Reception with Cash Bar
Wannalancit Mill Building, 600 Suffolk Street, 4:00PM - 7:30PM

For more information, visit lowellma.gov.

Presented by The City of Lowell in partnership with:

and the U.S. Small Business Administration

