SUSPECTS ARRESTED IN ARMED HOME INVASION

Officers from the Lowell Police Department responded to 99 W. Sixth St. on Sunday evening December 21, 2014 at 6:39pm for a report of an Armed Home Invasion. Upon arriving, Officers found that three men had entered the home armed with a handgun and robbed the occupants who included a 2 year old child. Detectives from the Criminal Investigation Division conducted the follow-up investigation and located two of the suspects in Tewksbury where they were placed under arrest. They are:

Wilfredy Delacruz Age 22 of Lowell

Daniel Trinidad, Age 19 of Lowell

Both are charge with Armed Home Invasion and will be arraigned in Lowell District Court today. Additional charges are probable and investigators are still looking for the third suspect in this case. Officials advise that it appears that the occupants of this dwelling were targeted and the incident was not a random act.
