SHOTS FIRED ON BRICKET AVENUE & SMITH STREET

On February 24, 2015 at approximately 8:30 P.M., Lowell Police were dispatched to Brickett Avenue to investigate a report of shots fired into a dwelling. Almost simultaneously, Lowell Police Communications received a second report of shots fired into a vehicle in the area of Smith Street.

Responding officers were able to confirm that a bullet had gone through the wall of the dwelling located on Brickett Avenue. The occupants of the home, including at least one minor child, were present at the time of the incident. Officers were also able to confirm that a bullet struck a parked vehicle in the area of Smith and Horn Street. This happened while the owner and family members were entering the vehicle. Officers also confirmed a bullet had gone through a wall of a dwelling located on Smith Street, which was vacant at the time of incident. There were no injuries.

It is believed that neither the occupants of the home nor the owner/occupants of the vehicle were the intended targets of this act. The matter is under investigation by the Lowell Police Department.
