Lowell Canine Parvovirus Vaccination

The Lowell Police Animal Control Division in conjunction with the Animal Rescue League of Boston, Wignall Animal Hospital, Lowell Vet Clinic and Lowell Humane Society will be offering a low cost clinic to the residents of Lowell dog owners.

This clinic will be offering the Canine Parvovirus vaccination for $10 fee. This clinic is for healthy, unvaccinated dogs only. Dogs that have been already vaccinated must continue to seek advice and vaccinations from their own veterinarian. Sick dogs must seek veterinarian care immediately and are not allowed to attend this clinic.

Pre-registration for this clinic is being held on Friday, August 22, 2014 from 1:00pm until 9:00pm, at the E. N. Rogers Middle School at 43 Highland Street. No dogs are allowed at the pre-registration. Pre-registration is required to attend this clinic.

The clinic will be held on Saturday, August 23, 2014, 9:00am – 2:00pm, at the Kathryn Stoklosa Middle School, 560 Broadway Street, Lowell.

Due to the nature of the Parvo disease, strict guidelines will be followed during this clinic.
