ALERT NEIGHBORS LEAD POLICE TO HOUSEBREAK SUSPECT

At 12:24pm this afternoon, Lowell Police officers responded to an address on Concord St. in the Belvidere section of the city after a resident reported seeing a male subject cut the screen on a neighbor's house and enter through a window. When the first officers arrived the subject fled out the back of the house through adjacent yards. Officers located the subject and he was subsequently arrested and charged with Breaking and Entering a Dwelling in the Daytime with Intent to Commit a Felony, Possession of Burglarious Tools and a Warrant for Drug Charges. He is identified as Daniel Boland, 36 of Lowell. Boland had a knife on him that is believed to have been used to gain entry into the home. He also had jewelry in his possession and had packed several backpacks with property but left them in the rear of the residence when he fled police.

The Lowell Police Department wishes to credit conscientious neighbors with aiding in the detection and apprehension of this suspect. Boland is being held at the Lowell Police Department pending arraignment in Lowell District Court.
