

Wendy Crocker-Roberge
Principal
Lori A. Lang
Assistant Principal

Lowell Public Schools
J.G. Pyne Arts Magnet School
145 Boylston Street
Lowell, MA 01852

Tel: 978-937-7639
Fax: 978-446-0942

Dr. Joel Boyd, Superintendent
Lowell Public Schools
155 Merrimack Street
Lowell, MA 01850

Dear Dr. Boyd,

Pyne Arts Magnet School social studies teacher Michael Neagle respectfully requests to attend the National Association of State Boards of Education Annual Conference to be held in Omaha, NE on Thursday, Oct. 17 and Friday, Oct. 18, 2019.

<http://www.nasbe.org/project/civic-engagement-champions/meet-our-2019-civic-engagement-champions/>

Mr. Neagle was recently selected as the first ever Massachusetts Civic Engagement Champion (CEC) by the NASBE, in partnership with MA DESE. As one of four recipients nationwide, Mr. Neagle will be honored at their annual conference and speak about the importance of civic education at the middle school level and his work in Lowell Public Schools.

The funding source for the conference is the NASBE, and $210 for a sub for 2 days will be paid out of the District Professional Development Account.

Thank you for your consideration of this request.

Sincerely,

Wendy Crocker-Roberge
Principal
Pyne Arts Magnet School

CONVENTION / CONFERENCE REQUEST for SCHOOL COMMITTEE AGENDA

Out of State And Overnight Travel Request:

Pyne Arts Magnet School social studies teacher Michael Neagle respectfully requests to attend the National Association of State Boards of Education Annual Conference to be held in Omaha, NE on Thursday, Oct. 17 and Friday, Oct. 18. Mr. Neagle was recently selected as the first ever Massachusetts Civic Engagement Champion (CEC) by the NASBE, in partnership with MA DESE. As one of four recipients nationwide, Mr. Neagle will be honored at their annual conference and speak about the importance of civic education at the middle school level and his work in Lowell Public Schools. The funding source for the conference is the NASBE, and $210 for a sub for 2 days will be paid out of the District Professional Development Account.

<http://www.nasbe.org/project/civic-engagement-champions/meet-our-2019-civic-engagement-champions/>