Clerk

I, Ngamb, E. Warner, am writing this as a Human & a Single Mother, who just wants the best of her son in this world. On October 27th, 2019 a Sunday, at 0945-1000, my Private Automobile was towed from a parking lot, even after, the tow agent was informed by the groundsman that the Automobile was safe and okay to be parked at the parking lot.

I am addressing the Lowell City Council on the following Reason(s), and the <sup>(REASON)</sup> reason as to why they should listen:

① What is the relation between City of Lowell and Indige People?

② How <sup>is</sup> is one to live life off/free from intimidation as an Indigenous people?

③ Reason(s) as to why my Private Automobile was towed, after the tow agent was informed the Automobile was safe and okay to be parked at the parking lot.

④ Reason(s) as to why Lowell Police Department has placed Private Automobile on hold.

⑤ Reason(s) as to why the tow agents DENIED me access retrieve my Son's school things.

⑤ Reasons as to why, prior my Private Automobile been towed, UMass police trailed me while travelling from Fletcher St to Riverside St, Lowell MA. Only for my Automobile to be towed 5 days later from a parking lot.

⑥ Reasons as to why my Son cannot enjoy the Rights of Life Had does Loren Price Department think my Son gets to and from school?

⑦ Who is to bear the financial burden, caused by the hold-up?

Sincerely,

~~Ngambi~~, Ngambi Ki Kwaru
