REFERENCE: Approval to Apply/Accept/Expend One Stop for Growth State Grants

Dear Mayor Leahy and Members of the City Council:

The Department of Planning and Development (DPD) is requesting approval to apply for, accept and expend four OneStop For Growth state grants for the total amount of $9,825,000. The grants, which are due June 4th, are as follows:

1. Housing Choice Program – up to $250,000 to update the City-wide Master Plan;
2. MassWorks Infrastructure Program – up to $2,500,000 to building public infrastructure to support the Acre Crossing redevelopment by Jeanne D'Arc Credit Union;
3. MassWorks Infrastructure Program – up to $7,000,000 to construct Phase 2 of the Tanner Street Realignment Project; and
4. Community Planning Program – up to $75,000 for a transit-oriented development study around Gallagher multi-modal station.

The proposed infrastructure investments and planning studies will help DPD prioritize planning efforts and enhance City-wide redevelopment opportunities moving forward. The attached vote is to apply for, accept, and expend these four grants through the state's consolidated OneStop system. Should you have any questions or require any additional information, please feel free to contact Christine McCall at the Department of Planning and Development at 978-674-1401.

Sincerely,

Eileen Donoghue
City Manager
