Subject: Donation from Digital Federal Credit Union

The Digital Federal Credit Union has once again generously offered to donate $5,000 to the Lowell Fire Department. I would like to use the money to purchase radio/headset equipment for the fire apparatus to provide a safer operating environment for fire crews. I will send a letter of thanks to DCU for their generous gift and for their continued support of the Lowell Fire Department and the citizens of the City of Lowell.

Thank you,

To Whom It May Concern,

On behalf of DCU – Digital Federal Credit Union, I am pleased to provide your organization with the enclosed donation. This donation represents DCU's support of your organization's efforts in providing programs and services that make a difference in the common communities we serve.

As a socially responsible organization, DCU is committed to giving back and helping provide the resources needed by your organization to do the good that you do each and every day. The donation is not a sponsorship or an opportunity for DCU to market our credit union. The objective for our donation is to directly affect the lives of our common community members who need help most.

Thank you for all that you do! I work with Maureen Spaulding, our Foundation Manager on DCU's philanthropic work and to build our partnership with organizations that align with supporting our community members in need. Please do not hesitate to reach out to Maureen on any questions and/or inquiries directly at mspaulding@dcu.org, or 508.263.6809.

DCU also continues to explore volunteer opportunities to support our communities. If there are such opportunities at your organization, please contact Maureen to see how we can further our help community members.
