LOWELL POLICE INVESTIGATING ALLEGED SEXUAL ASSAULT

For Immediate Release
November 5, 2014

Public Information Officer:
Captain Timothy Crowley
Office: (978) 674-1907
tcrowley@lowellma.gov

LOWELL POLICE INVESTIGATING ALLEGED SEXUAL ASSAULT

The Lowell Police Department is investigating the alleged sexual assault of a teenager that occurred late yesterday afternoon, November 4th, in the area of Lincoln St. near the Lowell Connector. The victim was treated and released from a local hospital. As a result of initial information, the following is the description of the suspect wanted in connection with this incident:

- White male approximately 50 years old with a wrinkled face
- 5'8” to 5'10”
- Salt and pepper hair, long in length
- ¾ length older, green jacket
- ‘Beanie’ style winter hat
- White undershirt
- Dark colored steel-toed boots

This investigation is a priority for the Lowell Police Department. Additional patrol resources have been assigned to the area. Anyone with information is asked to call the Lowell Police Department at 978-937-3200, CRIME STOPPERS Tip line at 978-459-TIPS or use the MyPD app.

Due to the nature of this incident, the Lowell Police Department would like to remind residents to maintain diligence in their routines as to their personal safety and report anything or anyone that causes concern. Additional information will be disseminated as it becomes available.

Follow the LPD on @LowellPD or us on Facebook Lowell Police Department

You can also download the MyPD application and select Lowell Police Department